

CORDIA GETS ECDL AND EQUALSILLS ACCREDITATION

14/06/2010

Cordia receives accreditation from The British Computer Society (BCS)

Cordia has received accreditation for the ECDL and Equalskills courses which are managed by Denise Hay and invigilated by Irene Currie and Michelle Neil. They received a glowing report from The British Computer Society (BCS), which praised the very organised centre for demonstrating good working practice. The accreditation means that the centre meets the requirements of the BCS Qualifications Quality Assurance System.
